

Speaker CV

Name

Bertrand Sonnery-Cottet, MD, PhD

Current Position & Affiliation

Orthopaedic Surgeon – Knee Sports Surgery, Centre Orthopédique Santy, Lyon, France. Founder and Director of the SANTI Study Group (Scientific Anterior Cruciate Ligament Network International).

Country

France

Educational Background

MD, Faculty of Medicine, Lyon, France (2000)

Orthopaedic Surgery Specialist Degree (DESC), France (2000)

Residency in Orthopaedic Surgery, University Hospitals of Paris (1993–2000)

Chief Resident (Chef de Clinique), Orthopaedic Surgery, Hôpital La Pitié-Salpêtrière, Paris (2000–2002)

PhD in Science, Toulouse Doctoral School (2022) – Thesis on functional brain MRI after ACL rupture

Professional Experiences

Orthopaedic surgeon at Centre Orthopédique Santy, Lyon since 2003

Practice dedicated to sports knee surgery with more than 600 ACL reconstructions per year

Founder of the SANTI Study Group, an international ACL research network

Former President of the Société Francophone d'Arthroscopie (2024–2025)

Member of ESSKA, ISAKOS, AOSSM, AAOS, SFA, SOFCOT and the Herodicus Society

Editorial Board member of Orthopaedic Journal of Sports Medicine and reviewer for AJSM, KSSTA, OJSM and OTSR

Main Scientific Publications

Author of more than 280 PubMed-indexed publications and more than 300 Scopus-indexed articles, including over 200 on the anterior cruciate ligament.

More than 50 publications in the American Journal of Sports Medicine (AJSM).

Author of 40 book chapters and more than 200 international scientific presentations.

Key publication include:

“Anterior cruciate ligament reconstruction combined with anterolateral ligament reconstruction using hamstring autograft versus anterior cruciate ligament reconstruction using bone-patellar tendon-bone autograft: a randomised controlled trial with 5-year follow-up. Sonnery-Cottet B, Carrozzo A, Poilvache H, Fayard JM, Freychet B, Thauinat M, Vieira TD, Saithna A; Lancet Reg Health Eur. 2025 Dec “